Australian College of Rural and Remote Medicine

Logic Map 2018-23

Purpose		Strategic Objectives 2018-2023	ightarrow Long-term outcome	ightarrow Vision
To improve the quality and safety of care for rural and remote communities by setting professional standards for practice, and delivering lifelong education, support and advocacy.		Transform registrar experience through a single, integrated, flexible and College-led Training Program	ACRRM is a secure, vibrant and highly regarded professional organisation for rural doctors	right places, with the right skills, providing rural and remote people with excellent
		Transform registrar experience through a single, integrated, flexible and College-led Training Program	ACRRM is an effective leader in the specialty of general practice and rural generalist medicine in Australia and internationally	health care
Mission Value   To be a vibrant professional In	Values a pursuing our oals we are:	Increasing the number and diversity of people who join and work with the College and share its vision and values	Evidence of rural, remote and Indigenous communities' health needs being met more effectively and efficiently by FACRRMs and through rural collegiality, value and social accountability.	Visionary Courageous Experts Inclusive	Enriching members' lives through programs and services that inform, educate and connect people	Rural, remote and Indigenous communities have increased
		Building systems that deliver enterprise excellence	levels of access to quality medical services, as well as continuity of access, through strong recruitment and retention of FACRBMs
		Leading recognition of Rural Generalist Medicine through local and global networks		